Arnold Trail Sportsmen's Association ATSA

Private Shooting Lessons

Peyton Higgison, Certified NSCA Level 1 Instructor. Peyton is a Master Class competitive Sporting Clay shooter and the 2016 Modern Skeet Champion. Peyton has extensive coaching experience with nationally recognized L. L. Bean Outdoor Discovery program. He published feature article in July 2026 Clay Target Nation magazine "Connecting and Letting the Other Guy Shoot".

From November to April '27, Peyton will be available at ATSA to coach Sporting Clay techniques. If you're a bird hunter or seasoned competitor Peyton can evaluate your skills and coach you to improve body mechanics and a better connection between your eyes, target and gun.

Contact Peyton at: 207-751-9319

David Graham, Certified NSCA Level I Instructor is a Maine native and Master Class shooter with extensive competitive experience. David has a lifetime of achievements nationally in skeet, trap and sporting clays. As coach, David will work with you every step of the way to ensure you're getting the most from each session to quickly advance and achieve your goals.

Contact David at: 774-284-1416

Roger Jellison, Certified NSCA Level I Instructor, also a Maine native has been pursuing the challenge and joy of breaking clays for over 20 years. Roger best enjoys helping new shooters gain a solid foundation in shotgun sports. Discussion includes safety, gun fit, ammo selection and shot planning that will strengthen the new student's confidence and improve results.

Contact Roger at: 207-323-6767

2027 REGULAR PRICE: Two students, 2 hours for $250.

Start now, call your coach for more details and schedule an appointment today.

Skeet Trap Sporting Clays Five Stand